BOOKS of the Company will be CLOSED from the 14th to the 20th Inst. inclusive. Bovril has layed such a conspicuous part in South Africa that it forms no inconsiderable feature of the story. The Beveloping and Printing for Amateur 'Lancet' has had frequent references to Bovril in the reports of the officers of BRANCH the Royal Army Medical Corps. Nearly T No. 8 Wild Dell, Wanchai, Com-FORTABLE FURNISHED ROOMS, to every newspaper correspondent has had to 1587 refer to Bowill to make his story complete. Rudyard Kipling and Baden-Powell have KODAKS. written their Boyril stories. Over 500 British hospitals and similar public institutions use and prescribe Bovril, not beef tea, but Bovril.

KING EDWARD The reason is not far to seek. Bovril is a neurnisher as well as a stimulant. It contains the albumen and fibrine, the sustaining properties of the beef. It is A HIGH-CLASS PRIVATE this fact, together with its absolute purity, that commends Bovril to physicians and scientists, and proves in practicat what it

THE IDEAL WOMAN.

The ideal woman is a woman without an ideal. She is easy to live with. She is worth living for. She is worth dying for. She is the skylight in the charcoal drawing of humanity-man being the charcoal. She is the skylight in the edifice of the human life. She has no history. She has no story. She is the rhythm which transforms the prose of life into poetry. She wears a reasonable hat at matinees. She is too clever to talk of woman's rights; she takes them. She wears frocks that match her hair; she does not dye her hair to match her frocks. . . .

She is the Sphinx that smiles at the trouble man takes to unravel the mytory of the Pyramids when he might be doing something with the money in it. She helps her husband to build up a future for himself, and never seeks to rake up his past. She believes that a theory is the paper fortress of the immature, and that a clergyman may still be a man. She knows that when men talk about a woman being good-Hooking they mean that she is welldressed, though they don't know it, She does not insist on her husband's enting up the cucumber sandwiches left over from one of her partiest-she eats them herself and suffers in silence.

Her humour is that of a vintage year. She does not believe that wit is that element which is untit for publication. Her own wit is velvety. She was taken from school before it was too late, and describes herself as a brand plucked from the burning.

She is not such a fool as to fancy that any one is over convinced by argument. She does not reason. She loves. She does not believe that a man can love only once, or only one, She herself prefers loving much to loving many. She believes that the first woman was a hieroglyphic inscription, and that every women is but a 'squeeze' of Eve. She knows that the key to the incription is love. She knows that every real woman is the ideal woman, the fact being that every idea of the ideal woman is wholly dependent on the idealiset, and every woman who is idolised is idealsed .- Mr. Frankfort Moore's contribution to Mrs F. H. Williamson's 'Book of Beauty,' extracts from which appear in Pearson's Magazine.

nosts of letters from people who have received great benefit from the use of Clarke's Blood" Mixture If counct be too bighly estimated, for it cleanzes and clears the blood from all imparities. This is a good testimonial from the Family Doctor, which goes on further to say: It is the finest Blood Purifier that science and skill have brought to light, and we can with the ntmost confidence recommend it to our subscribers and the public generally. ### EUROPEAN LADY ASSAULTED AT KOBE.

The Kobe Herald of the 30th alt reports -- What is characterized as a brutal attack was made by a Japanese upon Mrs Irving tioned BANKS will be CLOSED for the Bell at about ten o'clock this morning in Ikutamaye. Mrs leving Bell told a representative of the Hereld that she had taken her little son down to Dr Miller for some slight medical attention. The doctor had given the little chap five sen, and it was in spending this that all the trouble arose. A visit was paid to a crockery shop where two tea-pots were priced. .It was not until a decision had been come to, to elsewhere, that the sales-woman out a broken plate from of the shop and ac-'san' of having broken it. This much Mrs Irving Bell understood, although her knowledge of Japanese is of the slightest. The accusation appeared to be false, as the lady held the child by the hand during the whole time, and it was highly improbable that Mrs | For the 'Imperial Bank of China,' Bell could have knocked it over with her skirt, as had she done so, she would have heard the crash. Not being able to explain matters, the lady and child moved off, and it was not until they had gone | Per. PRO. Russo-Chinese Bunk. some fifty yards that Mrs Bell was aware that she was followed, and her first intimation of this was when she was seized by the | Guaranty Trust Co., of New York, arms from behind. The man who did this was absolutely unknown to Mrs. Bell, who to the hest of her knowledge had never set eyes on him before. The assailant also seized the child, and dragged him from the ricksha, and it was to save the child that Mrs. Bell struck at the man. Thero must have been some severe handling, for the lady's hat got knocked off into the gutter during the struggle. The arrival of two foreigners -- Mrs. Bell thinks they were Frenchmon-served to check the Japanese, who by this time had obtained the assistance of two others, and it was during this temporary buil that the lady and child managed to reach Mrs. Nishigawa's house. from which place a policeman was sum. moned and the British Consulate notified of the affair. The Consulate has informed the Governor, and we understand that the affair is to be thoroughly thrashed out. Enquiry at the police-station elicited the news that so far the assailant has not been arrested, but that he has made a statement before the authorities that Mrs Irving Bel' struck him several times with a stick, and that furthermore he denies having struck at or ill-treated either lady or child. Up to the time of going to press, nothing had been settled in regard to the matter.

FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE!-If the blood is laden with impurities it spreads discase as it circulates through the organs of the human hody-Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Kidneys, Brain, Clarko's World-famed Blood Mixture is warranted to cleanse the blood from all impurities from whatever cause arising. Remarks.

The tide table given below has been compiled at the Nautical Almanac Office in London from the result of the analysis of observations taken by means of an automatic tide-recording machine in the Water Police Basin at Teim Sha Tsui-during

To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 3 feet 4 inches, and on the gauge at Lamont
